To Whom It May Concern:

I felt quite honored when my dear friend Jackie Schaffer asked me to write a reference letter for her.

In addition to raising a family and being a good wife, daughter mother, sister and friend, Jackie has always found time to get involved in life around her. Unlike many people these days, whenever she adopts a cause or pursues a new interest she is guaranteed to be highly committed.

Jackie is only few years older than I, but in terms of the influence she's had on my life she might as well have been my sister. Our friendship started before we were born as our mothers were best friends since they were toddlers. In our teen years our parents made a decision that our families would live directly across the street from each other when my family decided to move to Florida to be closer to Jackie's Family. As a thirteen year old, moving to a new state was overwhelming but Jackie always took me under her wing and made sure I was ok. I have watched Jackie my whole life take deep interest in the lives of many of the people that have graced her life. She is known for spending time helping old and young alike with their personal problems. By example, Jackie taught me not only the value of helping others, but the importance of loyalty and commitment.

Jackie is also a problem solver. Much thought goes into the things Jackie does, and she has an unusual ability to notice what others overlook. Over the last decade Jackie has lived away from our family and truly it was an absence that our families missed considerably. Last year Jackie return home for extended period of time when her father was diagnosed with a terminal illness because of these chain of events Jackie and her husband made a decision it was best they live closer to family. Needless to say our families are extremely happy.

I could continue with descriptions of Jackie's many other good qualities- her work ethic, her energy, and her creativeness to name three. Instead I would simply like to say how much I think of Jackie and how strongly I recommend her for any task that requires problem solving and a high level of commitment.

Sincerely,
